This will be a rich weekend of activity as we study, learn and fellowship under the teaching of our friend and BVCC College Minister, Amy Kendall. Amy will use the life of Joseph to show how each of our unique stories is integral to God's bigger story. The following details will help you get the most out of our time together.

AGENDA

Friday Evening January 24 (dinner on your own):

- Registration – 6 pm (you can check into your room anytime after 3 pm)
- Kick Off Session – 7 pm

Saturday January 25:

- 6:45 am – Wake-Up Walk or Run (optional)
- 8:00 am – Breakfast
- 9:00 am-4:00 pm – Speaker sessions, praise/worship, lunch, craft, quiet time...

MEALS

- Breakfast and lunch on Saturday are provided.
- Coffee, tea and water will be available around the clock.
- Friday evening snacks!

LODGING

- We have 8 rooms with king-sized beds that 2 people will share. The other rooms each have 2 queen beds. Please let Kristen know if you'd like a room with your own bed. Cost will vary, depending on # per room.
- We will try to accommodate all roommate requests.

PACKING LIST

- Dress comfortably in layers.
- Toiletries, PJs, swimsuit & flipflops if you want to hot-tub, journal and your Bible!
- Snack to share (refrigeration available).

DIRECTIONS

- The Element Hotel is located right off of Hwy 36 .
 1. Take Superior/Louisville (McCaslin) exit south toward Superior, and take your first left.
 2. Approximately 10-minute drive from the church building.

MISCELLANEOUS

- Cell service and WiFi readily available.
- Need more information? Email or text Kristen at k5larson@aol.com, 303-588-0087.

Undercover Mission (optional)

As part of our retreat tradition, bring new (tags on or off) undergarments of any type/brand/size to help women in Boulder Country Women's Shelter. These "dignity" items are much needed and appreciated. Cash donations also accepted.

"Ready" with Amy Kendall

Amy studied Religion at Pepperdine University before earning her MA in Theology from Fuller Seminary. She has worked as a Missionary in Russia, Children's Minister in Redwood City, Calif., and Instructor of New Testament at Colorado Christian University.
